By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

GEORGE, R.

WHereas our Parliament ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the Eighteenth Day of October next; we, with the Advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publiſh and declare, that the ſaid Parliament ſhall be further prorogued on the ſaid Eighteenth Day of October, to Thurſday the 15th Day of November next enſuing; and we have given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain to prepare a Commiſſion for proroguing the ſame accordingly. And we do hereby further declare our Royal Will and Pleaſure, that the ſaid Parliament ſhall, on the ſaid Fifteenth Day of November next, be held and ſit for the Diſpatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, and the Commiſſioners for Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons, are hereby required to give their Attendance accordingly at Weſtminſter on the ſaid 15th Day of November next.

Given at Our Court at Kenſington the Twentieth Day of September, 1739, in the Thirteenth Year of our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

Belgrade, Sept. 5. On the 3d Inſtant, purſuant to the Articles of Peace, the Demolition of our Fortifications was begun, in which Work 2000 Men are daily employed. The Place is to remain garriſoned by the Imperialiſts, till the ſaid Fortifications are levelled. In the mean time the Gate of Wirtemberg and the adjoining Caſernes, are in the Poſſeſſion of the Turks, and there they are to keep, without entring the Town, till the Demolition be perfected within the three Months limited; and their Quarters are fenced about with Paliſades. Some Imperial Battallions are already marched from hence to the Camp at Semlin. All the Artillery and Stores of Ammunition and Proviſions, are to be carried up the Danube in our Veſſels.

Belgrade, Sept. 10. On the 7th Inſtant ſix or ſeven Thouſand Janiſſaries would have entered the Town by Force, and the Baſhaw to whom the Grand Viſier had given the Command of thoſe Janiſſaries who had taken Poſſeſſion of the Gate of Wirtemberg and the adjoyning Caſernes, was obliged to order his Men with their Sabres to drive them away and to draw up the Bridges. The next Day the Janiſſaries who are at the ſaid Gate, attempted to enter the Citadel; but the Imperial Officer who commands in it, having cauſed the Cannon to be pointed againſt them, they were obliged to retire. The Grand Vizier has offer'd ſeveral Millions provided the Fortifications be let ſtand in the Condition they are in; but his Offer was rejected.

Stockholm, Aug. 31. The Preparations for Tranſporting 6000 Men to Finland ſtill go on, the Draughts out of the Regiments of Helſingland and Weſterbothnie are to be embarked at a Place called Uma, which lies between their two Quarters; in the mean Time Field Pieces, Ammunition Waggons, &c. are continually ſhipping for that Country, and Contracts have been entred into for Cannon of 24 and 16 Pounders, Bullets and Bomb-ſhells to a conſiderable Quantity. The Queen of Sweden returned laſt Wedneſday Night from Carlsberg to this City, but his Swediſh Majeſty having found himſelf perfectly well by the Air and the Exerciſe of Shooting, has deferred his Return till the Beginning of next Week.

Berlin, Sept. 15, N. S. By the laſt Letters from Potzdam, we hear, that his Pruſſian Majeſty was, as this Day, to go and dine at Machenau, a little Hunting Seat not far from the abovementioned Place, and that in the Evening, or to Morrow, he propoſed to be at Wuſterhauſen.
